

UNMASKING CYBERTHREATS WITH LOGRHYTHM AXON

2024

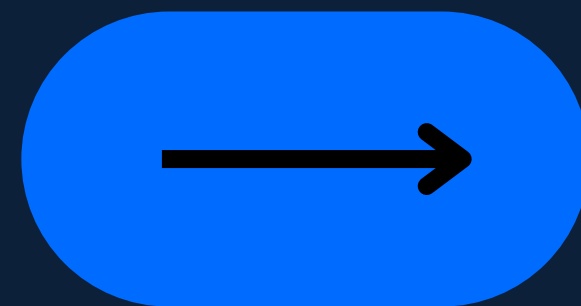

THE UNSEEN BATTLEFRONT

During a routine LogRhythm CSE call, our LogRhythm Axon customer uncovered thousands of suspicious login attempts from a single user.

The question lingered:
normal or nefarious?

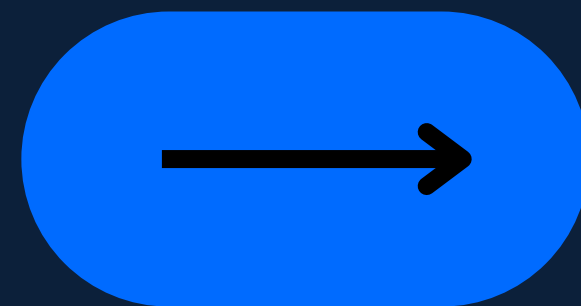

UNRAVELING THE MYSTERY

A deep dive revealed an employee's unauthorized port forwarding for RDP access, leaving the home network vulnerable.

A threat actor exploited this, launching a password spraying attack on corporate resources.
